My dear Sirs and Associates:

It would give me a great deal of pleasure to thank each of you in person - before leaving for California tomorrow, the 1st - for the television set which you so kindly presented to me while I was in the hospital. Since this opportunity will not be my present privilege I hope you will accept this medium of thanking you heartily for the gift which gave me diversion when I needed it most. It was indeed most thoughtful of you.

I trust that not long after I return from the Coast, which will probably be in the spring, I shall have the distinct pleasure of expressing to all of you my keen appreciation of your generous contribution to my edification and enjoyment.

With every good wish for the coming year, I am,

Sincerely,
