2 On some occasions, the name Abex or American Brakeblok
3 may have been printed in black or white on the edge or underside
4 of certain brake lining products.

5 (e) Abex does not possess sufficient knowledge
6 concerning the total amount of raw asbestos purchased or subse-
7 quently incorporated into the asbestos-containing automotive
8 friction products manufactured by it. Abex is generally aware 9 that chrysotile asbestos fiber was purchased from the following
10 companies at various periods during the years 1950-present:

11 Asbestos Corporation, Ltd.
12 Thetford Mines
13 Quebec, Canada

14 Bell Asbestos Mines, Ltd.
15 Thetford Mines
16 Quebec, Canada

17 Lake Asbestos
18 Black Lake
19 Quebec, Canada

20 Johns-Manville Corporation
21 Asbestos, Canada

22 Vermont Asbestos Group, Inc.
23 Hyde Park, Vermont

24 (f) Abex objects to this Interrogatory on the 25 grounds that it lacks particularity. To the extent that Abex 26 understands this Interrogatory, Abex states that asbestos is 27 included in friction products to assist in the stopping or con-
28 trol of a moving vehicle.

(g),(h) All asbestos-containing friction products manufactured and sold by Abex were generally packaged in
