Subject: Press inquiry: EPA Hurricane Maria Update, Friday January 5, 2018

I am a freelance science writer reporting for The Environmental Monitor. I saw the press release I mentioned in the subject line of this message, and I wondered if you might put me in touch with a member of the team who would be willing to correspond or speak with me about the some of the technical aspects of the response. Typically I will send questions via email, or if they prefer to chat that's fine too. At EM we cover water quality, testing, monitoring, and sampling issues for working scientists and engineers, and I'd love to write about this subject for our readers.

Sincerely,

Karla Lant
