THE COURT: We got the expert coming.

MR. SHELLENBERGER: Mike.

THE COURT: I was pointing to whoever was going to do it. You see, he does it the first time. When he began this case, he hadn't studied it.

Everyone is satisfied that all of the correct exhibits are prepared to be taken into the jury room?

MR. WILLIAMS: Yes.

MR. SHELLENBERGER: Yes.

THE COURT: Very well. Mike, take the exhibits in.

Counsel, Ford 82 says it is in evidence, May 30th of '96. What do your records reflect? This is the asbestos exposure of brake repair workers in the United States.

MR. WILLIAMS: It should not be in evidence, Your Honor. I am sorry, Ford 82?

THE COURT: Yes, sir.

MR. WILLIAMS: Plaintiff's Ford 82?

THE COURT: Plaintiff's Ford 82.
