The President Reports—

Joseph F. Battley, President

National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association

IT IS customary to give an account of stewardship upon a stated annual date. However, my report at the last convention has been reproduced and distributed to all members and it is too early to present a full account for the current year.

This report will, therefore, be of an interim nature covering the operations of your Association for the past six months. During this period much has been accomplished and a firm foundation laid for future—and even greater—activities.

As most things are achieved by ideas, efforts and initiative of individuals, it is putting things in their natural sequence to first pay tribute to the men in our industry who have served so faithfully, arduously and unselfishly as officers or on committees of your Association. None of our advancement could have been possible without the valuable contributions of their tremendous energy and ability.

In your national headquarters we have added to our personnel, seeking such talents as would augment our services or further the plans already adopted. We have been most fortunate in securing these men and they are valuable adjuncts to an already well integrated and intelligent corps of workers.

On page 43 of this Year Book you will find a graphic chart showing the trend of paint, varnish and lacquer sales by months for the years 1947 and 1948 and the first four months of 1949, as reported by 680 establishments to the Bureau of the Census.

Total sales of these 680 establishments amounted to $1,052.6 millions in 1948 as compared with $1,038.5 millions in 1947, an increase of approximately 1.4%. The total sales for the industry in 1947, as shown by the preliminary report of the Census of Manufactures, was $1,248.8 millions. This indicates that the total sales for 1948 amounted to $1,266.3 millions.

1948 was the highest year in the industry's history, and the second in which sales exceeded one billion dollars.

Sales for the first four months of 1949 indicate that this will be the third best year in the industry's history. Such figures make me optimistic about the future of the paint and finish industry. At the same time, I recognize that we have by no means reached the ultimate in volume. We know that there are unsold markets, new fields for paints and finishes and we will continue to set higher goals and we are determined to reach even higher levels.

One of our great projects came into actuality in March of this year. After much planning, research, study, meetings—all of the aches and pains, tremors and excitement, hopes and fears that go along with a new or revitalized project—the first advertisement by this industry in two decades appeared in national publications.

Every advertisement, every word, was carefully checked by your committees. Probably it was too much to hope that we could satisfy the personal wishes of everyone in our industry. Despite the fact that our intent was to see that every phase of our industry and the myriad products that arise from its great research departments was adequately represented to the public, we have not reached the stage of unanimous consent. The advertisements, appearing in four great national magazines were educational and attention-getting and did awaken the public to the improvements in our products and the great progress of research in our industry. I can assure you that the advertising program will be greatly intensified, be harder hitting in its theme and more productive from a dollar and sales standpoint. I maintain, however, that the advertising to date has been effective, that it has done much to elevate our industry to its proper niche of dignity and that all will appreciate its value as the program develops.

This has been one of our activities. But there are many more. Our promotion and publicity department has been preparing news-feature articles for more than 300 daily newspapers—furnishing this service on request. They have worked with and assisted writers and magazines in the preparation of articles on finishes, painting and color. Special radio scripts are being prepared for radio stations and artists—all of this to reach a reading and listening audience of many millions who will be impressed by the fabulous story of what our industry produces for better living.

The activities of the Scientific Section have been so varied and so many projects have been undertaken that we are now utilizing the fourth floor to expand the facilities of our laboratory. I know that the developments and findings will prove of inestimable value to our industry and our members. Among the new projects of our Scientific Section are the study in dispersion and the research on vapor barriers. Both are of intense importance to all.

The Industrial Finishes Division has made tremendous strides in the "Blue Print In Action" program. Many of the problems will be solved by focusing upon them the attention of the very able men serving on the various national and local committees which have been set up for their study.

Our new statistical department, although in existence a scant few months, has prepared data of great value and is now preparing an industry statistical handbook which will be of great benefit in your sales and distribution planning.

The legal department has watched carefully all legislation which might affect our industry—not only at the national level—but in the State legislatures as well. The Clean Up—Paint Up—Fix Up Bureau has had the greatest year in its 38 year history—conducting campaigns in 2400 cities—a tremendous record of achievement. The educational program, through Paint Power classes is growing steadily and is having its impact on better trained personnel within our industry—a great forward step.

We have achieved much during the first half of the year. It is due to a spirit of cooperative effort, of exploring new fields, of daring uncharted courses, seeking new heights. It has been a thrilling experience and I am proud of it—proud of the men in the industry, on the committees and your staff who are maintaining steady and continuous progress of our great industry. That spirit knows no defeat and accepts each new goal as a challenge to its intelligence and determination. With such men in our industry working as a unit through the National Association, I feel confident of the future.

YOUR ASSOCIATION STAFF

JOSEPH F. BATTLEY
PRESIDENT

As the Chief Executive of your National Association, he represents the organized industry and its various groups in national contacts and activities. He performs such other executive duties provided for in the By-Laws and as the Executive Committee of the Association may direct. He also is responsible for the administration and conduct of all Association functions and the supervision of the Association's department heads, the Industry Advertising Campaign and the National Clean Up—Paint Up—Fix Up Bureau. He is an ex-officio member of all Association committees.

General Battley entered the Army as a private in 1917 with the Virginia National Guard. He was commissioned and served overseas during World War I. He remained in the regular service and over a period of years rose to the rank of Brigadier General. His duties were principally of administrative and executive nature, including production, procurement and distribution of supplies, labor matters, construction, public relations, industrial mobilization, planning and handling occupational deferments for selective service.

He was first recognized by the paint industry for his work as Administrator of the Paint Code during the NRA days. He was given the assignment when loaned by the Army to the National Recovery Administration in 1933 to serve as Administrator of the NRA Chemical Division. In that capacity he was Code Administrator for the Paint, Paper, Rubber, Soap, Chemical and related industry codes.

General Battley joined the organized paint industry in May 1947 upon retirement from the Army after 30 years service. He became Executive Assistant to former President Ernest T. Trigg of the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association. He was unanimously elected president in 1947 to succeed Mr. Trigg and re-elected for a three year term in November, 1948.

EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT

GEORGE H. PRIEST, JR.

THE EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT performs such administrative duties as are delegated to him by the President. He also acts for the President in his absence from Washington.

His duties include immediate supervision of the headquarters and active liaison with the work of the different divisions. He handles many contacts with Government and other outside agencies, with local associations and other industry groups as the representative of the President and the Association.

Mr. Priest was president of the New England Paint and Varnish Production Club in 1923-24. He served for three years with the United States Department of Commerce as paint specialist. He was also vice president of the American Paint Journal Company, president of the St. Louis Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association (1933-34) and for several years was vice chairman of the Clean Up—Paint Up—Fix Up Campaign in St. Louis, before joining the Association Staff in 1940.

Assistant to the Secretary

KENNETH P. LAIRD

The office of the Secretary of the Association maintains a current record of officers and members of the National Association and affiliated local associations. It performs other work assigned by the President or the Executive Committee, handles general association correspondence, is responsible for the minutes of all meetings of the Association and the Executive Committee and preserves all records belonging to the Association.

Office of the General
Counsel

M. Q. MACDONALD

L. O. CARVER
Associate General Counsel
(right)

THE OFFICE OF THE GENERAL COUNSEL handles all legal phases of the varied activities of the Association. It carries on the work of the Unfair Competition Bureau created by the industry in 1918 for the purpose of suppressing commercial bribery and correcting false, misleading, and deceptive advertising.

The Office of the General Counsel assists the Legislative Committee in checking the multitude of bills introduced in state legislatures and in Congress.

The Association and a member of the General Counsel's staff are registered as required by Act of Congress, for the purpose of representing the Association in connection with legislation affecting the industry.

The General Counsel serves as Secretary to the National Affairs Committee.

During the current year the Counsel's office has been particularly busy in cooperation with the Legislative Committee, watching not only the legislative trend in Congress but also in the 45 State Legislatures which met this year. Items of intense interest to the paint industry have been introduced and in all cases prompt action has been taken and the industry notified.

The value of a well coordinated legal department has been proven time and time again, but never with more force than during the present year.

Advertising Sales

Director

RAY A. HILL

MR. HILL is a new addition to the Association staff. For the past several months he has been calling on manufacturers, meeting with local paint associations, talking to newspaper advertising managers—all with the purpose of fully explaining the industry advertising program and securing better cooperation and cohesion of effort.

With a background of newspaper and public relations work and as director of the Philadelphia Clean-Up Campaign last year, Mr. Hill has filled admirably a position that is newly created since the inauguration of the cooperative advertising program.

He has brought to the Association a new and fresh outlook, a host of new ideas. Members in all parts of the country will have the opportunity of meeting him in person.

Assistant Director

Public Relations

LOUIS FISHER

EARLY THIS YEAR it was recognized that the association staff must be augmented to handle the many new details arising from the national advertising program. Mr. Fisher was brought into the association due to his unusual background. He has had vast experience on newspapers, a thorough knowledge of advertising and merchandising and has won the American Public Relations Award for outstanding public relations work in the trade association field.

His duties have been the writing of articles for trade and business publications, creating and developing tie-in aid material, preparation of advertising copy for newspaper use, promotion ideas for the national advertising campaign and assisting in the development of a stronger and greatly expanded public relations program for the industry.

Promotion and Development
Division

LONORE KENT
Director

THE PROMOTION AND DEVELOPMENT DIVISION assists in developing the industry's markets and improving its methods of merchandising.

MARKET DEVELOPMENT is carried on through direct-to-consumer promotional material channeled through newspapers, radio, national home magazines, trade and farm publications and women's clubs' programs. In the daily newspaper field, for instance, a double-barreled weekly service (feature story and "fillers") goes to the 305 newspapers in 43 states and 253 cities which have requested it. These dailies have a combined circulation of nearly 32 million . . . and a readership of more than 65 million.

Bi-weekly radio releases (the "HERE'S HOW" series), in both mimeo and pamphlet form, are used by a constantly increasing number of radio stations, by teachers in schools and colleges, by extension workers and 4-H leaders.

A continuous stream of special articles are prepared for national home magazines, farm and trade publications. Editorial assistance is given on many others so that published information relative to the industry's products and their uses is technically correct.

Many requests are already being received for the special new program now in preparation for women's clubs, "FINISHING TOUCHES."

Work to help improve the MERCHANDISING METHODS of the industry is done through the publicizing of the paint industry's internationally-known best-seller, "PAINT POWER—and How to Sell It", which is now in its fifth printing since its initial publication two years ago, as well as its companion pieces—the teacher's manual, "PAINT POWER—and How to Teach It" and the booklet, "HOW TO START A SALES TRAINING COURSE".

Further training of sales personnel is done through various publications. Examples of this are the series of twelve articles which have appeared this year in "Southern Building Supplies" and the current series of six articles on the industry's products now running in "Southern Hardware".

Public Relations Division

RALPH W. EMERSON
Director

ONE OF MANY DEFINITIONS for "Public Relations" is:
"Establishment and advancement of general understanding of and respect for the public service and social and economic usefulness of an individual or group organization, principle or movement."

In our industry, this broadly signifies that every member is a logical cooperator and active participant in our Association's public relations program, through his personal, press and public contacts.

In our National Association headquarters, the Public Relations Division is one of our most important instruments in gathering, correlating and disseminating pertinent information and in helping to promote good will and mutual understanding both within and outside of the industry.

While performing such tasks as are assigned to it by the President, the Public Relations Division keeps in touch with the developments in all the other divisions of the Association and enlists their cooperation in reflecting their activities, and cumulatively, the activities of the National Association through the columns of COATINGS and other available media.

The Public Relations Division edits and issues COATINGS. It also collects and publishes or makes available data on various phases of the paint, varnish and lacquer industry. Its activities involve the daily screening of government actions which affect our industry, and the maintenance of numerous personal contacts with government officials and various trade groups. The Division answers a steady volume of individual inquiries from members of the industry, editors, writers, etc. It issues special news releases on spot developments to newspapers, magazines and the trade press. Numerous special articles are written by the Division for publications in response to requests from editors.

National Clean Up—Paint Up—Fix Up Bureau

WALTER M. CLARK
Director

GEORGE I. MESSINGER
Assistant Director

RICHARD G. THOMAS
Assistant Director

THE NATIONAL CLEAN UP—PAINT UP—FIX UP BUREAU is the organization which formulates and distributes plans to cities and towns throughout the country and urges the citizens of these communities to conduct the Clean Up—Paint Up—Fix Up Civic Improvement Program.

This program—the public service program of your Association—stirs up in the consciousness of the people a new pride in their community and a desire to help themselves and their neighbors to better living. Through community cooperation it leads to better health and safety, the prevention of fire, the improvement of property and the creating of ideals of good citizenship—all of which contribute to the welfare of all citizens.

This desire for better living, this community pride, make Clean Up—Paint Up—Fix Up possible. The program reciprocates by opening new vistas of better living and civic improvement; which result in a more settled community and a more sound economy, more contentment and happiness for the individual.

Because the movement is universally recognized as being a crusade truly in the public service, it is only natural that people in every phase of community life—old and young, rich and poor—voluntarily participate. It enjoys the good will of the press and radio which devote much time in helping to publicize the objectives of the program.

As a result of the program's activities many kinds of businesses, particularly the paint industry, are benefited through the increased demand for merchandise and services.

Statistics
Division

HARVEY E. STORCH
Director

THE STATISTICS DIVISION is responsible for the compilation and analysis of statistical and economic information on the paint, varnish and lacquer industry. Up-to-date statistics are gathered from government and other sources and are published in "Coatings" and other publications.

The Division cooperates with the Bureau of the Census and other government agencies such as the United States Tariff Commission, the Bureau of Mines, and the Department of Agriculture to broaden the scope and improve the qualities of statistics which are made available to the industry. We are now working with the Bureau of the Census, for example, to publish monthly sales figures in gallons as well as dollars, in order to get more adequate information on the amount of paint that is being sold by the paint industry. We are also working with the Bureau of the Census in connection with the forthcoming Census of Housing and other activities.

A statistical handbook is now being prepared which will bring together in one volume a vast amount of statistical information which is needed by advertising, research, sales and other paint industry executives. The book will contain data on production, consumption of raw materials, marketing information, labor statistics, and a considerable amount of useful general statistics. The book will be ready shortly after the Census of Manufactures is released.

The Statistical Division is also preparing extensive market research data to enable members of the industry to discover new markets, establish sales potentials and determine their relative position in the industry. This type of data is becoming more and more important as manufacturers must compete successfully for business and must also cut production and distribution costs in order to show a profit.

Trade-Mark Bureau

ROBERT K. SHANNON
Director

ESTABLISHED IN 1898 YOUR TRADE-MARK BUREAU enjoys the distinction of being the oldest activity of our Association in point of continuous service to the industry. The Bureau's primary functions are:

1. Securing a record of every trade-mark used in the industry; and

2. On the basis of these records to have you use them for consultation purposes before a new trade-mark is chosen by your company.

In the fulfillment of these two primary objectives your Trade-Mark Bureau secures a record of every mark registered in the United States Patent Office for the paint industry classification—Class 16, Paints and Painters' Materials. In addition, through our Registration and Listing Services, we secure from members direct a record of marks not registered in the Patent Office. The Bureau's files, therefore, have the invaluable distinction of containing the most complete record of trade-marks in existence for products of our industry.

In furtherance of our second objective we urge every manufacturer in the industry when selecting a new mark to utilize these records so as to determine whether the same or confusingly similar mark is used by another company. It is an added protection to you to have all your marks in our files and to use these records when you select a new trade name for your products.

Your Bureau publishes a Directory of Trade-Marks triennially, with a Supplement in the interim period. Our 1947 Directory and 1949 Supplement contain a record of all marks on file with the Bureau, together with the name of the company using them and product or products to which they are applied. This serves as a reference guide in determining which company may be using a certain trade name. It is also an excellent source of preliminary investigation when selecting a new mark.

When new marks are added to our records, we notify our members by publishing them in "Coatings" so that any one who feels concerned with the use of a particular mark, may write the Bureau for further details.

Industrial Finishes Division

E. E. HOFFMAN
Director

THE INDUSTRIAL FINISHES DIVISION handles problems pertinent to industrial finishes producers, to achieve the continuous upgrading of the policies, practices and products of the producers of industrial finishes, to the end that the public may be better served by the industry. The Division publishes the "Product Finishes Reporter" and the "Lacquer Bulletin," which are issued shortly after each quarterly meeting of the Steering Committee and the Lacquer Committee, respectively. They contain a digest of the constructive materials discussed at the meetings. Publicity also is obtained through "Coatings," trade papers, newspapers, group meetings, and other promotional, educational and public relations approaches.

Important aims of the Industrial Finishes Division's program are:

To develop plans coordinating the Industrial Finishes Division into the plans for national industrial mobilization when the National Security Resources Board is ready with a plan of operation.

To activate and coordinate with the activities of the Steering Committee, the National Industrial Finishes Committee and the local Industrial Finishes Committees by implementing and expanding the work of the long-range program known as the "Blue Print in Action." Objectives are to secure the solution of the various common problems, to elevate industry standards, to improve and expand the producers' knowledge, and to strengthen our position in industry through group effort of local Industrial Finishes Committees.

To develop and outline "Control Testing Methods" for the adoption and use by the users of industrial product finishes. The development of these tests is a salient factor in the initial program of the "Blue Print In Action" and when established should become a keynote in our producers' relations with their customers. Further, these tests will strengthen the position of quality product finishes.

Scientific Section

JOHN C. MOORE

(left)

GEORGE G. SWARD

THE PURPOSE OF THE SCIENTIFIC SECTION, broadly speaking, is to contribute to the technical advancement of the industry and to its fund of scientific knowledge through research and development in the fields of chemistry, physics and engineering—and in these fields to establish and promote the most favorable public relations. Not necessarily all inclusive, or in order of importance, its activities include:

1. Expanding the range of raw materials for the industry by exploring the usefulness of newly available or previously little used materials, and by directing the attention of the members to these materials.
2. Encouraging production of essential raw materials with special attention to drying oils.
3. Improving methods of test and developing new ones.
4. Studying basic phenomena, such as hiding power, consistency, wettability and dispersion, pertinent to the products of our industry and to their raw materials.
5. Studying basic processes, such as preparation of vehicles and dispersion, including grinding, of pigments in vehicles.
6. Reviewing and abstracting the literature of our industry.
7. Cooperating with members of the industry, including suppliers of raw materials, and with consumers, to develop an appreciation for the use of our industry's products and to assist in their continuous improvement.
8. Cooperating with other technical organizations in developing proper and wider use of our industry's products.
9. Cooperating with government agencies in regard to their requirements for products of our industry.
10. Furnishing technical information and otherwise cooperating with other divisions of the Association.
11. Publishing its findings for distribution to the manufacturing members of the Association.

In general, these activities are conducted in the laboratory at Association headquarters. However, if deemed advisable, they may also be conducted elsewhere, in cooperation with other scientific and educational organizations. All work being done is for the benefit of the Association and the industry as a whole.

Trade Sales
Water Paint
Roof Coatings
Putty
Divisions

LAURENCE KIEFER
Director

THE TRADE SALES DIVISION is the clearing house in the National Association for all problems and matters pertaining to trade sales. It keeps in constant contact with salesmen, distributors, dealers and painting contractors and works closely with these groups in promoting better selling and merchandising and improving business conditions generally. The promotion and supervision of "Paint Power" training work is handled by the Division and in this work it has close and friendly working relations with all State Boards of Education. The Division operates in the field of Color Promotion and Simplification. It is in constant contact and has good working relations with all national associations and governmental agencies which operate in the housing and construction field. Programs and problems of the Masonry Waterproofing Material manufacturers are also handled by the Division.

The Water Paint Division is concerned with the promotion and protection of the water-thinned paint industry. Programs similar to those carried on by the Trade Sales Division are handled by this Division. A special technical advisory subcommittee working with the Scientific Section engages in technical studies of benefit to all manufacturers of water-thinned paints.

The Roof Coating Division has as its primary purpose the handling of problems which are peculiar to this branch of the industry, as well as the promotion and protection of the welfare of its members. A special technical advisory subcommittee works in cooperation with the Scientific Section on problems which are of interest to all manufacturers of these products.

The Putty Division is operated in the interest of all manufacturers of putty and glazing compounds. Interests itself in the promotion of the use of such products and aids the manufacturers in solving many problems peculiar to this branch of the industry.

Wholesale Distributors
Division

J. C. GOOLSBY
Director

THE PRIMARY PURPOSES OF THE WHOLESALER-DISTRIBUTORS DIVISION are: To provide a common meeting ground for the promotion of the interests and objectives of paint wholesalers and distributors and the paint industry generally, and to act as a clearing house for the exchange of ideas, problems and information of mutual benefit to Wholesalers and Distributors of paint and related products.

A monthly survey is conducted among these members. The tabulated and compiled summary, showing sales, inventories and accounts receivable trends, is published in COATINGS. In addition to other general industry information contained in COATINGS, this group receives periodically, special bulletins relative to items of particular interest to all Wholesalers and Distributors of paint and related products.

The Division showed a significant increase in membership during 1948, growing from 92 to 130 members, a jump of 42%. By close cooperation with local associations we hope to see this figure doubled by the end of 1949.

We have embarked on a program of stressing the value of Wholesale-Distributor Divisions or Committees within the framework of the local paint associations affiliated with the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association. This plan has been most successful in Baltimore and Pittsburgh, where Wholesale-Distributor Committees are now functioning as an active part of the local paint clubs.

Traffic Committee

E. A. LEVEILLE
Chairman

OFFICE OF THE CHAIRMAN OF THE TRAFFIC COMMITTEE is located in the Transportation Building, Chicago 5, Ill. The function of the Chairman is to keep informed on current and potential developments in rates, ratings and traffic rulings which may affect the packing and shipment of both finished products and materials of the paint, varnish and lacquer industry. Pertinent information is transmitted to members through "COATINGS" or by special bulletins and personal correspondence when necessary.

The Chairman maintains close contact with the Interstate Commerce Commission, and other regulatory bodies, and with railroad traffic associations and traffic officials. He keeps constantly informed in regard to Consolidated Freight Classification Rule 40 and Rule 41, shipping containers other than fibreboard; and solid and fibreboard containers under the jurisdiction of H. A. Campbell, Chief Inspector, American Association of Railroads, Bureau of Explosives; the terms of the Consolidated Freight Classification, exceptions to the standard classification, and commodity rates. This service is designed to help members keep abreast of the traffic situation so that they can maintain their own traffic on the most economical basis, consistent with changes and regulations.

The Chairman presides at meetings of the Traffic Committee, which formulates appropriate statements of the position of the paint, varnish and lacquer industry on existing or proposed regulations, and presents them to the Uniform Classification Committee and other official traffic bodies, when developments indicate need for such action.

The Chairman also answers individual inquiries from members of the Association in reference to their special traffic problems.

The Traffic Division is one of the most important and valuable departments of the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association. Actual dollar savings to the industry are not fully recognized.

HISTORY OF YOUR ASSOCIATION

THE National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association, Inc., is the immediate successor of the old National Paint, Oil and Varnish Association, and also a member of other national organizations of the paint, varnish and lacquer industry. The National Paint, Oil, and Varnish Association was organized at Saratoga, N. Y., on September 11, 1888, and was the first national organization of the paint, varnish and allied industries. The national organization was antedated by several paint clubs which were strictly local or regional in scope.

The first and oldest of these local or regional clubs was and is the Paint and Oil Club of New England, organized February 23, 1884. The next oldest club was the St. Louis Paint, Oil and Drug Club, now the St. Louis Paint, Varnish & Lacquer Association, which held its first meeting on December 18, 1886. The first meeting of the Chicago Club was held on February 25, 1887. The New York Club was organized February 26, 1887, the day following that of the Chicago meeting, and the Philadelphia Club was organized October 1, 1887. George B. Heckel, in his history of the American paint and varnish industry, points out that paint clubs in Cincinnati and Pittsburgh also had been organized by 1888, the year of the first national meeting.

There are now 31 local paint, varnish, and lacquer associations affiliated with the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association, Inc. (A list of the local associations and the names of their members will be found in the concluding pages of this Year Book.)

In the decades following the organization of the National Paint, Oil and Varnish Association, the manufacturers in the industry, while almost invariably retaining their membership in the National Paint, Oil and Varnish Association, formed separate organizations which developed as follows:

Paint Grinders' Association of the U. S. (organized May 8, 1899); Paint Manufacturers' Association of the U. S. (a change of name by the Paint Grinders' Association in 1907); National Varnish Manufacturers Association, (organized November 9, 1903); and The American Paint and Varnish Manufacturers' Association (superseded the two previously named organizations of manufacturers) organized October 11, 1926.

As time went on, it became customary for the manufacturers to meet at the same hotel and during the same week as the convention of the old National Paint, Oil & Varnish Association—a procedure which helped bring about on November 1, 1933, at Chicago the final and complete unification of the industry into the present National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association, Inc. The advent of the National Recovery Administration during 1933 was an immediate and powerful factor in bringing about the consolidation. The new conditions demonstrated the need for a single, powerful organization with maximum prestige which could act for the industry as a whole.

Further addition to the Association was made on August 1, 1935, when the National Wholesale Paint Association, Inc. (organized October 31, 1933), the successor to the National Association of Paint Jobbers (organized March 10, 1914), and the National Association of Paint Distributors, Inc. (organized January 24, 1923) became the Wholesale Division of the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association, Inc.

A total of sixty "annual" meetings have been held by your National Association either under the old name of the National Paint, Oil and Varnish Association or under the Association's present name. These include the organization meeting on September 11, 1886, and the Statutory Meetings held at Association Headquarters in Washington, D. C., in 1942, 1943, 1944 and 1945, when "Conventions-at-Home" (by mail) were held.

1946-1947—Preliminary plans were made for resuming nation-wide Cooperative Advertising Campaign. Association activities were concentrated on postwar program.

1948-1949—Advertising Campaign Plans were announced at 1948 Convention. Advertising was launched in National Magazines in the Spring of 1949.

Annual Report of the Treasurer

By E. A. Foy, Jr.

Again it is my privilege to report a very satisfactory year for your Association, from a financial standpoint.

Total income from dues increased because of larger sales of the industry, and also because of a further increase in Association membership.

Expenses also have increased because of the upward general trend in this direction and because of expanded activities of the Association. Increases in personnel have been necessary in the Scientific Section, Clean Up—Paint Up—Fix Up Bureau, and the Public Relations Department.

Surplus of the Association now totals $567,470.83. Of this surplus, $139,484.76 is in cash. The balance is in Government bonds, building, equipment and inventory.

The statement for the fiscal year October 1, 1947-September 30, 1948, is as follows:

Income for Fiscal Year October 1, 1947, to September 30, 1948
From Dues	$454,358.80
Interest Earned on Securities	6,794.25
Discounts Taken	1,281.20
Miscellaneous Receipts	1,072.78
	$463,487.83
Expenses for Fiscal Year October 1, 1947, to September 30, 1948

NON-EXCHANGE AGREEMENT

(Revised 1936)

"Whereas, the taking of the products of one manufacturer by another in exchange for his own products—commonly known as the 'Exchange of Paints, Varnishes or Lacquers'—is unethical, an unfair form of competition, and demoralizing:

"1. We hereby agree for ourselves, our distributing agents, jobbers, representatives and traveling salesmen, that we will not take or allow to be taken in exchange for our own products any paints, varnishes, lacquers or other products of any other manufacturers; nor will we give or permit the giving of any advice or assistance in facilitating such exchange or replacement or the disposal of competitive products in the hands of others; nor will we make or permit to be made any concessions, allowances or gifts of any kind to promote or facilitate such exchange.

"2. We agree to report promptly to the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association, Inc., any violation of this agreement coming to our knowledge.

"3. We agree to cooperate with the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association, Inc., in the investigation of such report.

"4. The National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association, Inc., shall investigate such report, and if found correct shall report the facts to the Executive Committee, who shall notify the accused of the charges, and provide due opportunity for hearing. The undersigned agrees that if the Executive Committee shall find that such charges against it are sustained, it will pay into the Treasury of the Association an amount computed by the Executive Committee which shall be twice the value of the goods exchanged or displaced, said value to be fixed on the basis of the regular invoice prices of the manufacturer, distributor or dealer making such exchange, at the time of the transaction, and agrees further to accept the decision of the Executive Committee in all such cases.

"5. We agree to maintain this Agreement fully in spirit as well as in letter; to inform all of our salesmen, jobbers and other distributing agents or agencies of the purport and scope of this Agreement and to advise them that any effort or assistance on their part to effect or promote the exchange through sale or otherwise of the products of any other manufacturer for the purpose of replacement in whole or in part by our own products, or to assist in the disposal of competitive products in the hands of others constitutes a direct violation of this Agreement.

"6. We accept responsibility for any violation of this Agreement by our salesmen, jobbers and other distributing agents, and will require of them that they shall not negotiate, arrange, or in any way participate in the replacement or transfer of any products other than those of our own manufacture.

"7. We agree that in all cases where the application of this Agreement is in doubt we will submit the facts to the Executive Committee of the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association, Inc., before taking action, and will abide by their decision."

ANTI-BRIBERY AGREEMENT

WHEREAS, The Federal Trade Commission, at Washington, has decided that the practice in trade of manufacturers or dealers, secretly giving commissions, gratuities, or other things of value to employees of concerns to whom they sell is unfair competition; and

WHEREAS, The members of the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association, Inc., are in full sympathy with the purpose and wish to cooperate with the Federal Trade Commission to eliminate the practice:

Therefore, We hereby agree for ourselves individually, our respective companies, salesmen and employees, not to permit the gift of any commission, gratuities, or other things of value to employees of concerns to whom we sell; and we further agree not to allow our salesmen expense money for any other purpose than for legitimate expenses, and not to permit any funds to be dispensed in any illegal way to influence business.

We are signing this agreement irrespective of our membership in the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association, Inc., or contemplated membership or because signing it is compulsory in order to become members or to continue membership in said Association.
