Dear All,

We hope you are all doing well today and will have the possibility to enjoy a bit the sunny weather.

Many thanks for your time and the useful exchange yesterday.

Please find attached our draft notes of the meeting, please do not hesitate to come back to us if you have any question and/or concern.

The document includes also the two papers we have distributed yesterday. On those as well, your feedback is utmost welcome.

We will keep you updated on the next steps we will take on our side, but thanks again for this possibility to get your views.

Have an excellent day,
