

1 Professor in the Department of Economics at the 2 University of the District of Columbia, and I was 3 there from 1977 until 1990.

4 While at the University of the District of 5 Columbia, I taught economics classes at the 6 undergraduate and graduate level and masters levels.
7 Focus was on urban theory, economic theory, and 8 history of economic thought.

9 While at the University of the District of 10 Columbia, I held a number of administrative 11 commissions, the Chair of the Department of Economics,
12 the head of several research institutions --
13 institutes and conducted a number of economic 14 studies.

15 While on leave from 1986 to 1988, I was the 16 Deputy Director of the Mayor's policy office in the 17 District of Columbia, and I have also chaired as a 18 citizen a number of bodies or served on a number of 19 bodies in the District of Columbia, such as things as 20 Housing Commission, the D.C. Commission, the Licensing
21 Commission, and I have conducted a number of studies