Subject: Please RSVP for February 9 Shared Services Focus Group

All,

Thank you for participating in a productive discussion on shared services during our last ASAM Roundtable. To follow-up, the Partnership is hosting a session on February 9th from 12:00pm – 1:15pm to discuss how the 'feds helping feds' approach might be applied to shared services and future learning sessions.

We invite you, or your representative who is leading shared services implementation, to join us for a conversation about the questions, obstacles, and resources needed for you to understand and effectively transition to a shared services model. Please find a few of the resources developed by our Shared Services Roundtable, attached. We've invited Glenn Davidson and his team to join us.

Because this session is scheduled over the lunch hour, the Partnership will provide a light lunch to attendees. If you plan to join us or have any questions, please email Emily Taylor at etaylor@ourpublicservice.org.

Best,
Tina
