Subject: Urgent Press Inquiry

Hello,
My name is Isaac Windes and I am a reporter for Cronkite News in Washington.

I am working on a story about Henry Darwin, the Chief Operations Officer for the EPA.

He was formerly employed by Arizona Governor Doug Ducey, and was known for his streamlining of permitting and procedures. I was wondering if I would be able to talk to him about what he was able to take from his experience in Arizona, and what some of the differences have been.

If I would be able to meet with him in person that would be the best, but if not a phone call would work as well.

You can reach me here, or at Ex. 6

Thanks, I look forward to speaking with you.
