Subject: How to defend the founding fathers

Kenneth,

There is only one way to reclaim America: by understanding and defending the principles that make her exceptional, and by spreading those principles to others.

To do that, there's no better place to start than the document that started it all: The Constitution. And I want to offer you access to it, completely free.

This in-depth online analysis of our founding document has everything you will need to truly understand and appreciate what the Founding Fathers meant when they talked about "securing the blessings of liberty for ourselves and our posterity," and it will give you the tools you need to defend the Founding Fathers' vision for America.

Thank you so much for your support of Heritage.

All the best,

Kay Coles James
