Elizabeth;

These are the conditions that we agreed in San Francisco. Except for some tweaking or, unless one of the companies has had an about-face on something, I think that we can get agreement. I am confident that ConocoPhillips and Chevron are aligned with Shell.

Patsy

PS: Attached is the draft slide pack that I have worked on for Jonathan to begin using to do at the BPR for EU Base chem.

Patsy

What is the probability that you can have these conditions agreed to by the consortium...?
