Father Confeses To Slaughter of Two Daughters

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 12.—(By International News Service.)—After hours of severe grilling at police headquarters Tony di Nello, 47 years old, broke down shortly before noon today and confessed, according to the authorities, that on Saturday, September 2, he took both of his daughters to the bank of the Missouri river, near here, beat them on the head with a hammer and threw their bodies into the water.

The victims were Flora di Nello, 11, and Helen di Nello, 14, both of whose bodies were found floating in the river.

Di Nello could assign no reason for his act. He said Mrs. di Nello was shopping at the time to take place about October 1. A special corps of a dozen nurses and physicians and surgeons will be on hand to examine the babies brought to the headquarters of the health center. Mothers of the community are showing great interest in the forthcoming event and are co-operating in every possible manner.
