Saturday's events will include:

9:30 to 10:30 a. m.—Second session of all sections.

10:45 a. m. to 12 m.—Pooling of results of study sections.

12 m. to 1:30 p. m.—Buffet luncheon in Union dining room.

1 p. m.—Talk by Dr. Percy R. Martin on Latin America, Stanford Women's Clubhouse.

2 to 4 p. m.—Business meeting and installation of officers.

4:45 p. m.—Organ recital in Stanford Memorial Church by Warren D. Allen.

6:30 p. m.—International relations dinner. Mrs. Malbone W. Graham, chairman. Speakers, Dr. Ralph H. Lutz, Dr. Graham Stuart, and Dr. Peter Odegaard.

In addition to the scheduled meetings and social events, there will be short trips to nearby places of interest, including the naval air station at Sunnyvale, and visits to the Stanford Art Gallery, the museum, and the Hoover War Library, where war posters and documents are to be on display. The exhibition has been arranged to carry out the international relations theme of the convention.

Members of the local branch, delegates, and visitors who are affiliated with the A.A.U.W. in other communities are invited to attend any of the sessions.

Cotton is generally contraband of war because it is the principal ingredient of smokeless powder and can best be combined with nitro acid to produce a high explosive.

A rose garden tea, for which a program of music and drama is being arranged, will be given the afternoon of June 5 at the Stanford campus home of Mrs. Robert Rossing, 344 Serra road, by Group II of the Women's Association of the First Presbyterian Church.

Tickets, at 35 cents, were placed in the hands of group leaders today. They may also be obtained through the ticket chairman, Mrs. Edward H. Post (Palo Alto 22465).

SAN FRANCISCANS MOVE TO PALO ALTO

New arrivals from San Francisco are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hootstein and their son, Edward Albert. They are established at 759 Cowper street with Mrs. Hootstein's mother, Mrs. E. Durkheimer.

Mrs. Hootstein is a graduate of the University of Oregon and Stanford, having received her master of arts degree at the latter institution in 1928. She belongs to Phi Beta Kappa. Since that time she has had several years of experience in the teaching of exceptional children, both in Oregon and California.

LAS LOMITAS P. T. A. TO INSTALL OFFICERS

Officers will be installed and reports of the year's work submitted at the regular meeting of the Las Lomitas Parent-Teacher Association tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Las Lomitas School. The unit will then adjourn until fall.

BUSINESS WOMEN PLAN MONTHLY DINNER

Reports of the state convention will be submitted to the Palo Alto Business and Professional Women's Club at its monthly dinner meeting, arranged for Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the banquet room of the President Hotel. Members planning to attend are asked to make reservations through the clubhouse (Palo Alto 5416). The price will be 65 cents.

PLEDGED TO COLLEGE SOCIETY

Miss Lenore Albertson, who is attending Washington State College, has been pledged to the college chapter of Spurs, national underclass women's service honorary. Miss Albertson is a freshman in the department of speech.

A courteous thief of Boulder, Colo., who stole two tires off an automobile trailer standing in a private driveway, returned the tires two days later with a card tied to them which read, "Wrong size. Thanks, anyhow."
