The Permit, built last July at Mare Island Naval Shipyard and scheduled for commissioning this month, was on a preliminary acceptance cruise with 135 men aboard. The freighter carried 48 men.

Sacramento Will Open Spring Fair

SACRAMENTO (UP)—The second annual spring fair will open a nine-day run today with ceremonies resembling a Chinese New Year celebration.

Opening ceremonies led by state finance director Hale Champion will feature fireworks, noise-making bombs and the dedication of a plaque honoring the contribution made by Chinese Americans to the history of the state.

Men. All things. Sing to the Lord." The choral group, which is smaller this year and yet has much better blending than in years past, gave a very joyous interpretation to this number. The attacks were excellent and the dynamics varied and interesting.

"Praise Thou the Lord" featured Edith Tavalero as soloist. She sang the aria with great feeling, her beautiful strong voice blending magnificently with the choir.

Tilley, in his solos "Sing Ye Praise," and "The Sorrows of Death" demonstrated a very beautiful quality in his voice and yet lacked the depth and maturity for the dramatic nature of the cantata. He and Mrs. Barber in the duet "My Song Shall Be Always Thy Mercy" complemented each other very well. Mrs. Barber was very effective in the duet with

The spiritual "I was very well done and an interesting ar. He's Got the Word His Hand" by Walter enthusiastically received audience.
