

1 pkg. (3 oz.) cream
4 balls; press 2 walinto each. Garnish
1 lb. seedless grapes inches; dip in slight-egg white; sprinkle Arrange with water-
e. Serves 4.

covers have lost ex-s for an estimated ounds since the ad-var.

2's

Atlanta St.

IONDS

ss?

then you compare
I see that lity than he much-col better the best and have They'll

re is no

agement
six out amonds. 60 ings for

T
et sent by Howard Hazeltine of the high school faculty and presented a spring tea served by Miss Michael Stenhardt and her students.

Delegates for the state convention to be held in O'Fallon in May are Mrs. J. J. Lichten and the president, Mrs. Claude Bontrage.

HORACE MASS UNIT.

Mrs. Howard H. Hall, president of the Horace Mass Unit, announced the president of the unit
at a recent luncheon reception last Wednesday. Other new officers are Mrs. H. C. Gannon, first vice president; Mrs. Thomas Hall, second vice president; Mrs. J. J. L.
Patterson, secretary; Mrs. Dan
L. Gannon, treasurer; Mrs. L. E.
Gannon, assistant secretary; Mrs.
J. J. Gannon, and Mr. Al
Hall, business manager.

The unit is composed of 10 members, all of whom are active in the unit. The unit is announced the president of the unit
at a recent luncheon reception last Wednesday. Other new officers
are Mrs. H. C. Gannon, first vice president; Mrs. Thomas Hall, second vice president; Mrs. J. J. L.
Patterson, secretary; Mrs. Dan
L. Gannon, treasurer; Mrs. L. E.
Gannon, assistant secretary; Mrs.
J. J. Gannon, and Mr. Al
Hall, business manager.

Mrs. David L. Hall, unit secretary, announced the president of the unit at a recent luncheon reception last Wednesday. Other new officers are Mrs. H. C. Gannon, first vice president; Mrs. Thomas Hall, second vice president; Mrs. J. J. L.
Patterson, secretary; Mrs. Dan
L. Gannon, treasurer; Mrs. L. E.
Gannon, assistant secretary; Mrs.
J. J. Gannon, and Mr. Al
Hall, business manager.

COLLEGE PARK UNIT.

Mrs. J. E. McKeon was installed as president of the unit at a recent luncheon reception last Wednesday. Other new officers are Mrs. Frank Satter, first vice president; Mrs. M.
Frances Graham, second vice president; Mrs. Leslie Orford, treasurer;
Mrs. Jack Gannon, secretary;
Miss Mary H. Gannon, assistant secretary; and Miss Mary Martha French, business manager.

Mrs. Louis M. McKeon was appointed chairman of the summer boardup. The following chairmen were appointed: Publicity, Mrs. A. A. Brown; hospitality,
Mrs. Harry Faulkner; membership, Mrs. Thomas Rae; magazine and publications, Mrs. Christine Laurance; life membership, Mrs.
Anthony Cracolice.

Mrs. L. O. Sanders, outgoing president, presented all members

DUPOIN PAINTS
EASY TERMS
SATURDAY'S SPECIAL
DUPOIN BEST OUTSIDE
PAINT, GAL. $2.69
IN 3's
HEITZMAN'S
PAINT STORE
26 E. SANTA CLARA
BALLARD 4114

To Kalon Hears Reading

Members of "To Kalon" and their guests met at the Sante Claire hotel on Thursday afternoon. The hostesses for the day were Mrs. Earl P. Alderman and Miss Dorothy Donovan.

The program for the afternoon was a dramatic reading of the play "Claudia" by Ronald Telfer and assisted by Anne O'Day.
The play was written by Rose

Labor day
Franken, which is now successfully playing on Broadway.
After the reading tea was served in the hotel lounge.

Wireless Machineless
PERMANENTS
Complete $1.75
Permanent Wave
Specialists
223 Security Bldg.
24 So. First St.
Columbia 3788

HAMMER

181 So. First St.

We intended to hold
this for our new store, but...

It was too good to hold back!

This young new FROCK

that carries at least a rear admiral's
rank in the navy (mode)

It's of Tropicana Cloth with white bodice finely stitched with (fast color) navy thread and navy skirt. Sizes 9 to 17.

$7.98

Hammer's Expansion Sale
now in progress... We're moving soon and have reduced practically all of our present merchandise most drastically. Come in tomorrow—and save!

Three Lo
for Eve

You will have Beautiful lips for every occasion!
Sporting Pink for glamour in the evening, famous for lasting qualities, are for your monogram-day surprises!

Blum's
St.

Blum

BOOKS
NOW

Now you can choose in pleasant surroundings new library, convenient floor.