Tate,

First of all, congratulations on the new job! I am so sad to no longer be working with you on a daily basis, but by the fact that you're still getting a late night email from me, I clearly won't be a stranger.

Can you provide some background information and further details on what led the EPA to it's announcement today regarding biofuel levels in the RFS?

The Governor is very concerned.

Best,
Stephanie
