reads excerpts from the classics as well as popular literature. He enacts all the parts from a scene in Shakespeare, brings figures from the Old Testament alive and tosses in a bit of Capt. Bligh from "Mutiny on the Bounty."

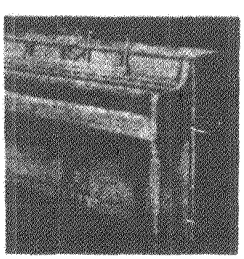

Among the many films in which Laughton has achieved success are "The Private Life of Henry VIII," "The Barretts of Wimpole Street," "Les Miserables," "Rembrandt," "The Beachcomber and "The Hunchback of Notre Dame."
