The first knowledge we had of the alleged claim of Fred E. Strickland was copy of the Notice of Hearing which we received from the Industrial Accident Commission of the State of California on August 8. We have no further information.

You are correct in your understanding that since January 1, 1952 we have not been insured with your company, and we have notified our present carrier of this possible claim.

According to copy of employment record attached to Notice of Hearing, Mr. Strickland claims to have worked for Armstrong Cork Company during the period 1948 to 1952 and again for periods in 1955, 1956 and 1957. For your information our records show that following termination of his employment in June, 1952 Mr. Strickland worked for Armstrong Cork Company from March to November in 1955 and from December, 1956 to early September, 1957. You will be interested to know that from April, 1958 through July 6, 1958 (our last payroll record report) Mr. Strickland has been working for Armstrong Contracting and Supply Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of Armstrong Cork Company which was formed January 1, 1958 to carry on contract operations formerly conducted by Armstrong Cork Company.

We have checked our records and list below all the information we are able to give you on Mr. Strickland's employment prior to January 1, 1952. In accordance with our Retention of Records Schedule all payroll records prior to 1950 have been destroyed, and contract files are kept for only seven years following completion of contract.

The first knowledge we had of the alleged claim of Fred E. Strickland was copy of the Notice of Hearing which we received from the Industrial Accident Commission of the State of California on August 8. We have no further information.

You are correct in your understanding that since January 1, 1952 we have not been insured with your company, and we have notified our present carrier of this possible claim.

According to copy of employment record attached to Notice of Hearing, Mr. Strickland claims to have worked for Armstrong Cork Company during the period 1948 to 1952 and again for periods in 1955, 1956 and 1957. For your information our records show that following termination of his employment in June, 1952 Mr. Strickland worked for Armstrong Cork Company from March to November in 1955 and from December, 1956 to early September, 1957. You will be interested to know that from April, 1953 through July 6, 1958 (our last payroll record report) Mr. Strickland has been working for Armstrong Contracting and Supply Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of Armstrong Cork Company which was formed January 1, 1953 to carry on contract operations formerly conducted by Armstrong Cork Company.

We have checked our records and list below all the information we are able to give you on Mr. Strickland's employment prior to January 1, 1952. In accordance with our Retention of Records Schedule all payroll records prior to 1950 have been destroyed, and contract files are kept for only seven years following completion of contract.
