Greenlaw Honored By Ducks Unlimited

John W. Greenlaw, Oakland contractor, was last night elected 1944 chairman of the Alameda-Contra Costa County Committee for Ducks Unlimited.

This year, vice-chairman under Dr. Herb Garcia, Greenlaw was unanimously elevated to the top post in the organization at a mass meeting in Courtroom One, Oakland City Hall.

Les Sanders was elected vice-chairman. Dick Reed and James Ready, were also unanimously re-elected treasurer and secretary respectively. Joe McCaffery was named to the newly created office of assistant secretary.

Reed announced that money from the recent mass meeting for Tom Main, general manager of Ducks Unlimited, Canada, was still coming in but the total had already reached in excess of $6400, more than double the amount raised at the 1943 meeting.
