Thank you, sir!

Let me confirm and get back to you on the more detailed question.

Again, many thanks and best regards.

So a note of good news is that I finally have a political hire in the regional administrator starting Tuesday. In short, LEP is simply owed $5.657 million in work which should be paid through Puerto Rico's State Revolving Loan Fund for waste water infrastructure? I will finally have someone to help me with tracking this down. I'm happy to do that and glad he's aboard. However, I have to admit that although EPA provides the funds if there's no funding in PR's SRF, I'm not sure what to suggest. However, I'm still on this.

Ryan,

Just checking in on this.

POTUS going to Puerto Rico post-Hurricane.

Any way we can get this done as part of recovery? They are an infrastructure company that can do tons to fix existing pipelines on the island with minimal disruption.

Please let me know.

Thanks.

He's in a similar spot as other contractors, this will take some time and EPA has already taken a legal position which DOJ has defended so although we need to provide SRF funds they attorney in this case is in a tough spot and will need to provide us more time.

Ryan,

Just checking back - the lawyer says that he has to file another motion for a stay, and he just wanted to know if there might be any movement on this.

I know it's only been a couple of days.

Thanks!

Thanks again for the time last week. I'm checking on the PR SRF situation. You are correct, that was a ridiculously written memo. I'll get back with you soon.
