Gentlemen:

The claimant in above matter is asking for compensation benefits for disability sustained on the assumption that he contracted lead poisoning as a result of washing lead free paint off his hands twice a day with H. C. Sinclair gasolene, containing tetra-ethyl lead.

We are contesting this claim and any literature you may give us on the question will be appreciated. Do you know of any similar claims?

We would greatly appreciate any information you might give us to enable us to arrive at a proper disposition of the claim.

Yours very truly,

J. R. Fitzgerald
