Re: Nevada Power v. Monsanto, et al.

Dear John:

In the process of looking for the documents that Monsanto claims to be privileged and purportedly produced inadvertently, it came to my attention that Monsanto has not yet produced an index of production documents cross-referenced to the categories of the Request to which they are intended to be responsive as required by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34(b) ("a party who produces documents for inspection . . . shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the Request").

Please provide your index forthwith.

Best Regards,

BRADLEY & MERRELL
