Hey Adam -

Copying Hal on this email.

What exactly in the document do you want to cover or just go over the top line?

Hey Hugh,

Darin here with Lummis. I've included a few colleagues on this email. Sen. Lummis recently worked with her kitchen cabinet of industry leaders to come up with recommendations for the Trump administration to help transform our economy and reestablish American greatness. We thought these proposals would benefit you, and hoped to have a staff-level briefing with your team to discuss this more, share our priorities and ideas, and hopefully collaborate to make these ideas a reality.

I'll let my team here find a good time to sit down with yours.

Best,

Darin Miller | Chief of Staff
