tered with the State Department number 19, 1040.
Officers were listed at the State Department as Francesco Benelli, Newark, N.J., president; Nicola la, Brooklyn, N.Y., vice-president; Francesco Castelli, the Bronx, secretary; Carlo Galbusera, Schenectady, N.Y., and Antonio Cor-sano, New York City, treasurers.
The Mazzini Society named the Italian War Veterans' Association the Oreste Asinofanti as agent against which it had filed process.
It charged that they were Fascist organizations authorized to raise funds for Italian war relief but instead they aim to stir up the Italian-American communities in the United States in favor of Musso-lini's war of aggression."

$10,798 Balm Asked For Death of Son

A suit for $10,798 for damages growing out of the death of Donald Farrell, 6, under the wheels of an automobile on March 2 was filed in the Alameda County Superior Court today.
The suit was filed by the child's father, T. L. Farrell, of 2233 McGee Avenue, Berkeley, against John C.
Schieveley, 38, a chiropractor, of 629
Macdonald Avenue, Richmond.
The boy was injured fatally, Farrell charges, when Schieveley backed his car out of a driveway at 2217 McGee Avenue.

First Anti-Sabotage Class to Convene

The first class in anti-sabotage instruction for guards and watchmen at Metropolitan Oakland National defense plants will be held tomorrow night at the Alameda County Courthouse. District Attorney Ralph E. Hoyt announced today a series of conferences between Hoyt and police chiefs, fire chiefs and fire marshalls of the area. The men will be instructed to detect and prevent fires and other forms of sabotage.
Representatives of 26 local factories will attend the classes, Hoyt said. He is chairman of the Alameda County Council for Civilian Defense.
