RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 37:

See General Objections. Abex further objects to this interrogatory on the grounds that it is overly broad as to time and scope, unduly burdensome and repetitive.

Subject to and without waiving these objections, see objections and response to Interrogatory No. 30.2, above.

INTERROGATORY NO. 38:

With respect to each trade organization or association listed in answer to Interrogatory No. 37, please state whether the minutes of the group's meetings and any correspondence between the members of such groups concerning the hazards of asbestos exposure are available.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 38:

See General Objections. Abex further objects to this interrogatory on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, vague, ambiguous and speculative.

Abex further objects to this interrogatory on the ground that the terms "hazards," "asbestos exposure" and "available" are undefined or insufficiently defined, and call for speculation.

Abex further objects to this interrogatory on the ground that it purports to shift the burden of establishing causation from plaintiffs to the defendant.

Abex further objects to this interrogatory on the ground that it assumes the truth of matters not established or matters not in evidence.

Abex further objects to this interrogatory on the grounds that it is over broad, oppressive, harassing and otherwise unduly burdensome, and calls for speculation to the extent to which it requests knowledge, information or materials which are not within the personal possession or control of Abex, its employees or agents, or which may be ascertained or derived, if at all, only from a page-by-page review of the existing voluminous business records and documents of Abex.
