Please join the National Academy of Public Administration and Management Concepts on Thursday, June 29, 2017 for a forum entitled “Stabilizing the Workforce in an Uncertain Future”. This forum will address workforce issues in an environment of anticipated government reorganization, transformation and workforce reduction. This forum will lead with a discussion of the findings from a recent survey entitled “Overview and Results of the 2017 CLO/CHCO survey: The State of Training Opportunities within the Government Today.” The forum will also discuss best practices and lessons learned from successful management efforts.

Please read the report here.

Please Click here to see a detailed agenda.

A continental breakfast will be served at 8:30am and the forum will begin at 9:00 am. To register, click here.

Thank you to our generous sponsor, Management Concepts, Inc.
