

ROOM COLORS
here at your fingertips!

Hundreds of decorating ideas for you
—at a glance!
All the wall,
woodwork,
ceiling colors
you yearn for
—with FREE swatches to take home!

See Fuller's

JEWEL CASE

decorating inspirations!

MORE DECORATING HELP

Irwin's

AT 127 LYTTON
DAVENPORT 2-6773

faculty.

Miss Elizabeth Van Auken, former principal, introduced her successor, Paul C. Parry. Parry, in turn, introduced the members of the faculty, all but two of them newly assigned to Lytton.

The picnic was held on the school grounds, and lasted until darkness ended the festivities.

MR. AND MRS. LELAND ROSENER will entertain a group of friends at cocktails Sunday at their Atherton home.

STANFORD ITTER SERVICE

DA 3-3596

Daily Palo Alto Times
and

DA 3-3623

SEP 23, 1949 P. 8

60c HOUR

Mrs. Bill Boaz Agency

Mrs. Ramaciotti and daughter, Mrs. Clarence rell Allbaugh (Catherine aciotti) will don Japanese tumes again for this co- tion, when they'll be hos- at a tea to be held O- There will be entertain- and exhibits of Jap- items—all for the bene- Christ Mission, which r- ters to Americans of Jap- descent.

The mission, at 1732 Buc- St., is administered by th- Joseph K. Tsukamoto.

Mrs. Ramaciotti is granddaughter of the Hiram Beers, who was years rector of Trinity C- in San Francisco. It was t- church that Mrs. Leland- ford donated a small cha- memory of her son, Lela- * * *

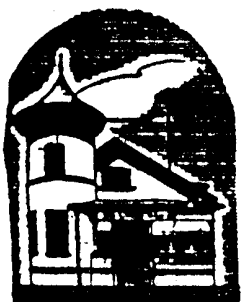

Mrs. John Wickett turned "school m'am" this year, with Junior L- neophytes as her pupils.

Mrs. Wickett will cond- seminar as the finals t- league's four-week cour- community volunteer se- and other things that- self-respecting leaguer- know.

On top of that, it's Mrs- ett's job to make up ex- tions at the end of the co- watch those shiny apples- rolling in!

Mrs. Wickett is also the Alto Junior League's repr- tative for the "Spectator- league's monthly mag- She contributes a co- "Party Line," and arrang- special articles on Palo- doings from time to time- * * *

The Woodside horse sh- the estate of Mr. and William Conney Duncan

The Corset Shop
Maternity Dresses

510 Waverley
Street
Palo Alto
DA 3-5153

FALL and WINTER SLACKS

Shop in the "Quaint Old House Around the Corner"

510 WAVERLEY STREET

Quality Merchandise — Reasonably Priced