TO THE CHILDREN

How often ten hundred thousand boys and girls know the Dutch Boy Painter's picture.

Do you know him, and do you know who he is?
The Dutch Boy Painter is the white head boy. When you see his picture stamped on the side of a new tin you know there is good white lead in the tin. When you see his picture on a sign or a poster or in a magazine it means that somebody near-by has white lead to sell.

And that is always a good sign, because the Dutch Boy Painter's white head makes the kind of paint which looks well and which wears as long that plenty of money is left to buy other fine things for both children and grown-ups.

We hope you will have a good time painting the picture houses and the children in this little book, and that you will get very well acquainted indeed with the Dutch Boy Painter. The way to enter him in these pictures is shown by the picture on the cover. Make him as nearly as you can like that.

Every time you see anyone painting a wall house just ask him if he is painting it with "Dutch Boy Painter" white lead.

"The picture on the cover of this book is the same as the picture on the side of a new tin of Dutch Boy Painter's white lead."
