lege coaches, were happy indeed that it all happened
"I certainly learned a lot from today's mixup," the graying Dillon said after the action "Some of the boys who had been working with the second unit showed me that they belong on the first team"

LOOKED BAD

The ex-Ohio State mentor thought his boys looked particuly bad in tackling "They were too high," he declared "Much, much too high Our blocking was spotty too"

High point of the day's work was the 70-yard run of the pint-sized left halfback, Lukie Phillips Phillips broke off tackle, side-stepped the reaching hands of two Army tacklers, and raced to the goal for the sole Lobo score

Bob Bell, right half, converted An unfortunate occurrence marked the otherwise smooth scrimmage An Army right halfback broke his left arm when he collided with Bui Sifford, college right end He was rushed to a hospital immediately after the accident

Bob Bell's kicking was a bright feature of the scrim, as was the running of Phillips, and the aggressiveness of Art Wheat, tackle Ed Zubov, right guard, ambled about the sidelines, his left ankle still in a cast He will not be ready for the San Francisco City College game on September 24
