Robert,

We are pro-Trump Administration trade media, serving the manufactured housing industry (see links below my name). Against that backdrop, we'd be keen to understand the EPA's reaction to the article below.

We are a modest sized team, but the biggest readership by far - I share that to say, please email me your comments for accuracy. Whoever is providing the comment, a photo of that person for our use is welcomed.

If a comment is off the record, just be clear on that and we honor those requests.

Thank you.

Tony
