INTERROGATORY NO. 129: If your answer to Interrogatory No. 128 is "Yes," for each such agreement:

- (a) Identify all parties to the agreement and state the capacity of each such party (i.e. indemnitor, indemnitee, etc.);
- (b) State the terms of the agreement, including the nature of the expenses covered and, if applicable, any limitations on payment, reimbursement or indemnification; and
- (c) Identify any and all documents referring to, relating to or reflecting said agreement.

RESPONSE:

See Union Carbide's Response to Interrogatory No. 128, including all objections set forth therein.

INTERROGATORY NO. 130: Was this Defendant ever allowed to use the trademark or logo of any other company, including but not limited to, its predecessor or related company, on any products Defendant sold, distributed or installed; and if so please state:

- (a) The trademark or logo used by you;
- (b) The company allowing such use of its trademark or logo;
- (c) The time period such use was allowed;
- (d) Whether such use was by written, verbal or implied agreement;
- (e) Each and every product such trademark or logo was placed upon;
- (f) Identify all documents which refer to, relate to or reflect the use of such trademark or logo.

RESPONSE:

See General Objections Nos. 1-8. Union Carbide further objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it is overly broad and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Subject to its objections, Union Carbide responds as follows:

Union Carbide did not use the trademark or logo for another company for its Calidria asbestos.

Union Carbide registered a trademark under federal law for short-fiber chrysotile asbestos on September 30, 1969, #877,596; first use August 10, 1968. Union Carbide has not renewed the
