1 I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT AND GENERAL OBJECTIONS

3 Rockbestos, is a Delaware Corporation with its 4 principal place of business in Connecticut. The information 5 contained in these responses has been assembled by authorized 6 employees and counsel for Rockbestos. It is impossible to 7 reconstruct each step in the information gathering process or to 8 state that all pertinent documents have been discovered and 9 examined. It is also impossible to state that all individuals 10 with relevant knowledge have been contacted as of this date.
11 Investigation continues and Rockbestos specifically reserves the 12 right to revise, correct, supplement and amend these 13 interrogatory responses. Moreover, Rockbestos objects to the 14 interrogatories on the grounds that they seek "corporate 15 knowledge" because it is impossible for Rockbestos to set forth a 16 collective knowledge of all Rockbestos employees, past and 17 present.

18
19 Rockbestos has never mined asbestos fiber or 20 manufactured asbestos thermal insulation. Many of the 21 interrogatories request information relating to the mining of 22 asbestos and the processes utilized in manufacturing raw 23 asbestos. Rockbestos objects to these and other interrogatories, 24 propounded as a boilerplate set of interrogatories in that they 25 are not designed to elicit discoverable information from 26 Rockbestos.

27 / / /
28

1 Many of the interrogatories exceed the permissible 2 scope of discovery as defined by California Code of Civil 3 Procedure §2017, by requesting information which is neither 4 relevant to the subject matter of this action nor reasonably 5 calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. The 6 interrogatories are also overbroad as to time, scope, and 7 geographic boundaries because they seek information relating to 8 products manufactured between 1930-1985, a 55 year period, and 9 are not limited to products allegedly used by 10 plaintiff/plaintiff's decedent or allegedly sold and/or supplied 11 to plaintiff's/plaintiff's decedent's employers during the period 12 of plaintiff's/plaintiff's decedent's employment. Accordingly, 13 the interrogatories are objected to on these grounds and on the 14 further ground that the information sought by many of the inter-15 rogatories is so burdensome to ascertain as to be unjust, harass-16 ing, annoying and oppressive.

17
18 Rockbestos further objects to the interrogatories to 19 the extent that they assume the truth of matters specifically 20 denied by Rockbestos or which have not been established by 21 plaintiff. In addition, Rockbestos objects to the 22 interrogatories to the extent that they seek privileged 23 information, proprietary information, confidential trade 24 information, marketing information, chemical compositions and 25 other information entitled to protection under California Code of 26 Civil Procedure §2017 and 2030, and/or which is otherwise subject 27 to the attorney-client privilege or the attorney work product 28

1 doctrine as provided by California Code of Civil Procedure 2 §2018.

3
4 Rockbestos was not a party to any action in San 5 Francisco Superior Court on June 21, 1985 when General Order No.
6 29 was issued and did not receive notice of the application for 7 consolidated discovery. Moreover, Rockbestos did not appear at 8 the hearing on the motion for the order consolidating discovery 9 and has had no opportunity to be heard with regard to that order 10 or to the form of discovery propounded. In addition, the Civil 11 Discovery Act of 1986, California Code of Civil Procedure §2016
12 et seq., which became effective on July 1, 1987, has superseded 13 General Order No. 29. Thus, the Court is without jurisdiction to 14 modify the discovery procedures established by the state legisla-15 ture and codified in California Code of Civil Procedure §2030, 16 and absent a legislative enactment, the legislature's governing 17 provisions pertaining to interrogatories cannot be overruled by a 18 local court rule. Shadle v. City of Corona, 96 Cal. App. 3d 19 173, 177 (1979).

20 The interrogatories also violate the order amending 21 General Order No. 43, of April 2, 1990 which declares that the 22 provisions of California Code Of Civil Procedures §2024 through 23 2036 are applicable to all complex asbestos litigation without 24 exception.

25
26 / / /

27 / / /

28

1 More specifically, the interrogatories and their 2 subparts exceed the Statutory number permitted by California Code
3 of Civil Procedure §2030(c) and are not accompanied by a 4 declaration for additional discovery. Thus, the interrogatories 5 are objected to on these grounds and to the extent that many of 6 the interrogatories are not complete in and of themselves, 7 contain subparts, are compound, conjunctive or disjunctive in 8 violation of California Code of Civil Procedure §2030(c)(5).
9 Moreover, the interrogatories contain instructions and 10 "definitions" which do not comply with California Code of Civil 11 Procedures §2030(c)(5), are overbroad, vague, inconsistent with 12 normal usage and meaning and are unintelligible. Accordingly, 13 the responses utilize those terms as they are commonly 14 understood.

15
16 Rockbestos does not waive any right or objection, 17 whether or not asserted herein, to the interrogatories or to the 18 admission of the interrogatories and responses at trial. The 19 preliminary statement and general objections contained herein are 20 specifically made a part of and incorporated by reference into 21 each of the responses set forth below.

Response to Interrogatory No. 10:

See Preliminary Statement and General Objections.

The subparts of this interrogatory request information so burdensome to ascertain, as to be unjust, harassing, annoying and oppressive because the information relates to numerous products manufactured during a 55 year period and the request is not limited to products allegedly used by plaintiff/plaintiff's decedent or allegedly sold and/or supplied to plaintiff's/plaintiff's decedent's employers during the period of plaintiff's/plaintiff's decedent's employment. In addition, the interrogatory requests detailed information not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence and which falls outside the scope of this litigation. Plaintiff has not established that plaintiff/plaintiff's decedent utilized any product manufactured by Rockbestos. Rockbestos will attempt to provide all known, pertinent information for products identified by plaintiff/plaintiff's decedent. Notwithstanding these objections, Rockbestos responds:

(a) Between 1930 and 1985 Rockbestos manufactured and marketed wire and cable products, some of which contained encapsulated and saturated asbestos. These products included: apparatus and motor lead wire, appliance and fixture wire, control cable, power cable, switchboard wire, high temperature wire, furnace and mud gun cable, shipboard cable and instrumentation cable, and may also have been referenced by National Electric Code and other specifications and designations. Rockbestos utilized various brand names and trademarks during this period, including, Firezone, Firewall, Rocktherm, Pyrotrol, Phosroc, Cryozone and H-Zone;

(b)-(c) Refer to Response to Interrogatory No. 10(a);

Some of the following wire and cable products contained encapsulated and saturated asbestos during the indicated periods.

Wire/Cable Products	Approx. Dates of Manufacture
Apparatus wire	1936 to 1985
Motor lead wire	1930 to 1985
Appliance and fixture wire	1930 to 1985
Control cable	1930 to 1985
Power cable	1930 to 1985
Switchboard wire	1930 to 1985
High temperature wire	1938 to 1985
Furnace and mud gun cable	1974 to 1980

1 Shipboard cable 1930 to 1979
2 Instrumentation cable 1930 to 1977

3
4 (d) It is unduly burdensome for Rockbestos to provide 5 the chemical composition of each such product because Rockbestos 6 manufactured many different wire and cable products during the 7 fifty-five year period, and the chemical composition varied 8 broadly over time and with the type and size of the wire and 9 cable.

1 Rockbestos used only chrysotile asbestos in 2 manufacturing wire and cable products with insulation containing 3 encapsulated and saturated asbestos.

4
5 (e) It would be unduly burdensome to provide a 6 description of the physical appearance and nature of each product 7 because Rockbestos manufactured many different wire and cable 8 products during the fifty-five year period. To the extent 9 possible, Rockbestos will attempt to provide this information for 10 products to which plaintiff/plaintiff's decedent alleges 11 exposure. Rockbestos' wire and cable products generally did not 12 have any external markings, although the boxes, spools or reels 13 containing the products generally were marked or tagged with the 14 names Cerro or Rockbestos, the brand or trade names Firezone, 15 Firewall, Rocktherm, Pyrotrol, Phosroc, Cryozone or H-Zone, an 16 hourglass within a circle or other distinctive markings. In 17 general, wire and cable products were marked internally with 18 marker threads.

19
20 (f) It would be unduly burdensome to provide a 21 detailed description of the intended use of each product. To the 22 extent possible, Rockbestos will attempt to provide this 23 information for products to which plaintiff/plaintiff' decedent
24 alleges exposure. The intended use of wire and cable products 25 with insulation containing encapsulated and saturated asbestos is 26 in those applications requiring resistance to high temperature 27
28

1 and flame, and as required in military, government and trade 2 specifications for certain wire and cable construction;

3
4 (g) Rockbestos is without sufficient information and 5 knowledge at this time to respond to this subpart. Investigation 6 is continuing;

7
8 (h) The asbestos suppliers include:

(i) Refer to Exhibit 1. Addresses are being compiled and will be supplied to the extent they are available. Pre-1980 sales records and data for the defined geographic area are not in existence with the exception of some records reflecting sales of wire and cable products, some of which contained encapsulated and saturated asbestos, to nuclear power plants. It would be unduly burdensome so as to be unjust and oppressive to ascertain the trade or brand names of each product sold in the defined geographic area between 1981 through 1985 because the information would have to be compiled from numerous uncatalogued documents. Please refer to Response to Interrogatory No. 10(a) for Rockbestos' trade and brand names.

(j) A compilation of sales data for the period 1981 to 1985 is maintained by the Rockbestos Company, 285 Nicoll Street, New Haven, Connecticut 06504. Underlying records no longer exist. E.C. Randall, Vice-President, Finance, is the Custodian of Records.

5 or color coding, or to state if and when, the practice to place 6 identifying markings upon the product was begun, when it ended or 7 to provide a detailed description of the pertinent markings
8 and/or the purpose, if any, of such markings. Rockbestos' wire 9 and cable products generally did not have any external markings,
