

(Drislane - Purcell)

1 correspondence and all that stuff, so a three-person office.

2 Q Okay. To your knowledge and information, that was
3 roughly the same since the inception of the FMSI?

4 A I believe so.

5 Q During your tenure as executive director, what
6 volume of correspondence and communication on any given day
7 would you be involved in disseminating as executive director?

8 A I might dictate a letter or two a day.

9 Q I have reviewed minutes of your predecessor, for
10 example, I'm looking at minutes that were dated June -- June
11 16 and 17, 1965, of the Friction Materials Standard
12 Institute, that would be about five years before you became
13 secretary; is that correct?

14 A Uh-huh, uh-huh.

15 Q Is that a yes?

16 A Yes, yes.

17 Q Okay. And these minutes indicate, and I will be 18 happy to show these to you, that at that point when they were 19 discussing in a report to the president the staff at the 20 Institute office, if I read this correctly, that there were
21 several thousand correspondence telephone calls --

22 A Oh, God.

23 Q -- and prints released on, over several months in