fresh nine nips Palo Alto, 7-6

By PETE KOSSORIS

Pitcher Larry Miller climaxed a wild seventh inning by singling in the winning run with the bases loaded, as Menlo-Atherton's soph baseballers edged Paly High, 7-6, yesterday in a practice game on the lower's diamond.

The Bears were leading 4-2 going into the fateful frame, but the Vikes loaded the bases on singles by Bob Groff and Denny Brewick and a fielder's choice. Hard-hitting catcher Gary Madrigan, currently hitting around the .500 mark, promptly cleared the bases with a triple, and moments later scored on a single by Noel Barnes, giving the Norse a 6-4 advantage going into the last of the seventh.

The Bears tied the score on three walks, two fielders' choices, and a hit batter. Miller then won his own game by smashing the deciding hit, his second straight of the afternoon.
