May 19 1932

Dear Winslow:

I shall await with interest your talk with Dr. Kast. I went down to the Chicago University this morning and had a half hour's talk with Dr. Hutchins. He has asked me to write to President Gates of Pennsylvania and President Hopkins of Dartmouth, and ask them if our problems would come within the scope of the Twentieth Century Fund. The Falk Foundation at Pittsburgh is another possibility for the Council.

I shall be glad to hear from you again when you have seen Dr. Kast of the Macy Foundation.

Sincerely yours,

W. H. Cameron
Managing Director
