CONSULTATIONS BY APPOINTMENT

October 11, 1927

Dr. David Edsall,
Harvard Medical School,
Boston, Mass.

My dear Dr. Edsall:

I mentioned to you last spring, and you verbally agreed that Dr. Violet deLaszlo could be given a small salary this year for her work in this laboratory, and we agreed on six hundred dollars. She worked throughout last spring as a volunteer.

I ^{do} ~~did~~ not feel sure that she is on the salary list to be derived from the Lead Fund, and I am therefore writing this note to be sure that she receives her check for fifty dollars a month.

I am sending the report of our work to the Lead Associations and requesting them to send to you the additional five thousand dollars which they promised for this year. I am enclosing a copy of the report to you as possibly you would like it for your files.

Very sincerely yours,

Joseph C. Aub.
