Subject: RE: NASDA Member Call: Dicamba

Thanks Dudley. A summary would be helpful. We'll look into Tate's availability and get back to you soon.

Thanks,

Subject: NASDA Member Call: Dicamba

Tate & Chad,

I touched base with Rick very briefly yesterday (thank you Rick!) regarding a call NASDA held for a subgroup of our members earlier this week to discuss some of the current challenges and potential next steps on Dicamba-related activities.

NASDA's current role is limited to information sharing and discussing current activities, lessons-learned, and potential issues/solutions going forward.

I am happy to provide the same general summary of our discussion to you all at your convenience.

Will certainly stay in touch on any specific actions or issues from our end if/when they develop. Many thanks and please let me know if you have any questions at this time. - dudley
