

...won her freedom by annulling the marriage yesterday in Superior Judge Mogan's court. Mrs. Blanton said Blanton told her he was a rich man of large affairs and had a palatial home at Belvedere. After the marriage he took her to a small apartment "until the Belvedere place is remodeled." A few days later the landlord locked her out because the check Blanton gave her rent came back.

Montana Bank Head Exonerated in Court

William T. Craig, president of the First National Bank of Ingomar, Mont., convicted in Federal Court that state on a charge of misappropriating funds, was yesterday exonerated by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals. The lower court held that the Montana bank had insufficient evidence to grant a conviction because Craig was shown to have transferred $800,000 special to a general account, without profit to himself or loss to the bank.

FULLER WASHABLE WALL FINISH

THE walls of your home!—Silent sentinels of comfort and privacy! Let them be smiling walls that cheer and soothe—that contribute their full share to that indefinable something we call "home atmosphere."

Creation of harmonious wall effects has its practical side, too. And here Washable Wall Finish comes to your aid with its two-fold service—its artistic effects and its help in good home-keeping!

First, Washable Wall Finish is easily applied by unpracticed hands! Then, it yields those mellow tints and shades so long monopolized by Kalsomine. And, a damp cloth quickly removes soil from your walls, restoring their original freshness—impossible with other kinds of wall finishes.

This is because Washable Wall Finish is a high grade varnish paint. It forms a non-porous surface unaffected by liquids. Comes in many beautiful shades and colors, and is applicable on rough or smooth plaster.

Our free book on painting tells you more about wall finishing and other interior home painting and suggests color schemes. Illustrated in colors. Write for it—it's free. Also, ask your Dealer about FULLER Quality Paints and Varnishes, also for color cards and about painting questions. For all large jobs consult a master painter.
