Tour of Vatican Library confirmed for June 7.

Tour of Saint Peter's scheduled for June 8.

Tour of Apostolic Palace confirmed. Awaiting specific date and time.

Working on meeting with Cardinal Turkson for 7th or 8th. Optimistic. Stu -

Working on dinner with Cardinal Pell, Secretary of the Economy. Optimistic.

We also will likely have a meeting with the individual who heads environment issues at the Secretary of State office.

Finally, I have arranged for private morning Mass at Saint Peter's for June 7 and 8.

Waiting to nail down date and time for visit with Pope's Press Secretary, Gregg Burke. Highest ranking lay American at Vatican.

Will keep you apprised.

Thank you, Leonard. I would like to set Scott's expectations about how big a group he will be allowed to bring to each of these events.

Right now, he's got 3 members of his family, and about 6 staff people - so about 10 total in the group. I am completely fine telling Scott that all the staff cannot attend certain of these events, just let me know.

Thanks again! This is very exciting.

Best,
Samantha

Everybody can attend the Masses.

As for all the private tours, I would suggest Scott, his 3 family members, and 3 staff for each.

The meetings with the Cardinals need to be kept quite small, 1 or 2 staff at most. Dinner with Cardinals I would say family and 1 or 2 staff.
