Subject: Liz Bowman

The name of the agency you are employed by is the Environmental Protection Agency. The taxpayers have every right to know how you are addressing issues that affect our planet. This means meeting with the press and answering questions.

Ms. Bowman not only denies press coverage but does it in a rude and unprofessional way. We pay taxes to support agencies like the EPA and expect that the best interest of the citizens & planet are being looked after and not the best interest of corporations and lobbyists.

Please do your job according to the job description.

Best,

Bernadette
