Monsanto

FROM (NAME & LOCATION): Medical

DATE: August 30, 1973 CC:

SUBJECT:

REFERENCE:

TO : FILE

I received a call from a Miss Audrey Ream, of Lebanon, Pennsylvania. She broke her West Bend fry pan and got some of the Aroclor on her fingers and was worried that she might have poisoned herself because she ate a couple of pieces of licorice with the same hand and so did her child.

I told her to forget it and there was no need to seek any medical attention.

R. Emmet Kelly, M. D.

REK/ln

MONS 031503

IN - 10 REV. 1-72