in—because paint has both protective power against the elements and the power of literally surrounding you with color, which is the basis of all home beauty. Your own personality can be expressed in your rooms through the effectively to modify or emphasize the structure of any room. A room too long for its width, for instance, can be improved by painting the end walls darker than the long side walls. Dark colors tend to advance, bring the walls its share of doors and windows, painting the walls and woodwork the same color not only simplifies the job but minimizes the disturbing element of the openings which otherwise hinder the achieve- Here you have full choice. Walls and woodwork can all be the same color, imparting the feeling of airy spaciousness. Or the walls and woodwork can be different colors or shades, for contrast.
