TO ALL LICENSEES:

Re: Price set up for materials interchanged.

Question has been raised with me as to prices to be quoted by one Licensee to another.

So far as materials which one makes but another does not, this is definitely under my schedules and I see no reason for changing it since it is simply a preferred trade buyer.

So far as quotations by one licensee to another, on materials which both make is concerned, I would appreciate your advice as to how to handle.

It is quite definite that purchasing licensees must respect my selling schedules and pay royalties on materials they buy and sell, as well as materials they make and sell. The price at which such materials are interchanged is not set up at present, however, and I would like your ideas on it.
