British Army Man To Speak in S.J.

City and county officials and representatives of veterans' organizations will greet British General A. S. Oldie, RFA, K. E., who will speak here under auspices of San Jose Canadian Legion Post.

Oldie will talk in IES Hall, 30th and Santa Clara Sts., at 8 p.m. Wednesday. George Arlidge, post commander, is in charge of the program. He is assisted by Mrs. Violet Cheney, president of the auxiliary.

A San Jose police escort will accompany Oldie through San Jose. The Red Devils Drum and Bugle Corps of San Jose American Legion Post No. 89 will march with the procession from 27th St.

Persons wishing to make reservations for the affair are asked to communicate with Arlidge at 400 Hodges Ave., San Jose.

Pays Off

JTA, Sept. 4. (AP)—Owing to ravages of wild animals in the province, the government has offered rewards of $40 for one elephant and $32 for a man-eating tiger. The reward is $200. Man-eating tigers and leopards are $200.

Meanwhile Herlin jokes and laughs—though somewhat wryly. When an American shows up for work late these days because of a hangover or late card game, he blames it on "technical difficulties."
