Hello Jean,

Thank you for extending this invitation and I apologize that we haven't gotten back to you yet. Our schedule currently has us out of town on those days but we may be able to make something work. We are having a scheduling meeting this Friday and I can run by the team and let you know shortly after.

Thank you for your patience and we will be in touch soon.

Subject: Invitation to Administrator Pruitt to Address the Petroleum Equipment & Services Association

Good afternoon.

I'm the Sr. Director of Public Policy for the Petroleum Equipment & Services Association (PESA) which represents the oilfield service, supply, and manufacturing sector. Our 200 member companies span the sector's entire supply chain, including firms like Halliburton, Vallourec, Schlumberger, and Baker Hughes, a GE company.

I'm following up on a letter that was sent to Administrator Pruitt from Schlumberger VP, Government & Industry Relations Dan Domeracki inviting the Administrator to address executives from our member companies at PESA's Executive Fly-In on September 27 or 28.

If you can let me know the name/number of the person in the Administrator's office I should check with, I'd be most grateful.

Kind regards,

Jean
