Havin' Trouble With Yer Game?

With a never ending attempt to please, Bill Kynoch, pro at Del Monte has equipped himself with a remedy for golfers who have had minor and or major difficulty negotiating his 18 hole course

Continually the brunt of remarks such as, "I shoulda had a four on that blankety-blank hole" or, "If it hadn't been for that dirty bunker, I'd a had an easy three" Kynoch took means to ease the pains of troubled linkmen

Armed and ready for the golfers' verbal means the tuned pro now leisurely listens to the individual recite his misfortunes. When the orator seems to be approaching the climax of his story, Kynoch nonchalantly reaches beneath the counter and hands a small paper napkin to his conversationalist

Printed in huge blue letters across the napkin are the words "CRYING TOWEL"

Dons Meet Powerful Nevada Club Sunday

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29 (AP)—The University of San Francisco Dons scheduled a light scrimmage today in preparation for Sunday's encounter with Nevada's powerful football squad. Coach Joe Kuharich was cheered by the report that star halfback Bob Greenhalgh would be ready to play. He hurt his knee last Sunday in the second play against St. Mary's.
