You are on my radar screen, but the process seems to be a close hold by those involved. We'll see if I get to contribute to the selection of any of our future staff.
Good luck with your job hunt.

Hi Jim

I've got my interest known to many but I hear the same thing about personnel all around. I just have to stay on folks radar screen as the process unfolds!!

Hey Janet,
The first couple of days with the new Secretary were well received by DOI employees.

How are you coming along with your search? It doesn't seem like the personnel process has gotten into high gear yet.
