MCL

Biodegradation Studies

We need the specific GC conditions that are employed and labeled representative chromatograms of the materials before and after cyclones.

PLOT (SCOT) columns

We would like any information on techniques they have developed for making reproducible PLOT columns that will take sample injection volumes in the range of 1-10 ml

polychlorinated dibenzo-dioxins and furans

We need any information generated internally or externally on sorption and detection techniques.