

1 Q Could you look at that for a moment please, Mr.
2 Drislane?

3 A Yes.

4 Q What is that document?

5 A It's a bulletin, so-called general bulletin
6 announcing the formation of the Asbestos Study Committee.

7 Q It indicates that the members of this Asbestos
8 Study Committee was to be Dr. Stefl from Raybestos-Manhattan,
9 a Mr. Henning from World Bestos Company, Dr. Spurgeon from 10 Bendix, a Mr. Reitze from Johns-Manville and Mr. Graham from 11 Carlisle Corporation, and then could you read for me the name
12 of the individual from Abex?

13 A Mr. E. H. Feierabend, Abex Corporation.

14 Q Is that your handwriting?

15 A That is my handwriting.

16 Q And can you tell me the circumstances where you
17 had to write in his name and Abex after you prepared the 18 bulletin?

19 A I cannot remember.

20 Q Who was Dr. Spurgeon from Bendix?

21 A He was some kind of a hygienist, I believe. He
22 was from central headquarters, I never knew him.

23 Q You never knew him when you worked at Bendix?
