

1 Q -- associate or otherwise --

2 A No.

3 Q -- of the FMSI to your knowledge?

4 A No.

5 Q Okay. Then turning to the presidency of Mr.
6 Sullivan in 1956 to 1957, you indicate that there was
7 considerable activity as regards membership in this time
8 period, an example of which being the Johns-Manville
9 Corporation was they had elected to transfer and become an
10 active member. What was the difference in that time period,
11 to your knowledge, between an associate member and an active
12 member?

13 A You will have to say your question again, please.

14 Q Sure. In the section --

15 A I see the thing, go ahead.

16 Q In the section under Mr. Sullivan's presidency,
17 you indicate there was considerable activity as regards
18 membership in 1956 to 1957. The Johns-Manville Corporation
19 which had joined during the FMI reorganization as an
20 associate member elected to transfer and become an active
21 member. Could you tell me what you mean by that?

22 A Look, back in the beginning there were these three 23 companies that elected not to become regular members of the
